Luke 17:1, 2

Continue of chapter 16, The world's system, serving 2 masters, and the reality of Hell.

These influences will either encourage to follow the Lord Jesus or this world system.

Our influence on others will cause them to follow the Lord Jesus or not.

Individuals will make their own way and make their own decisions.

How much do we influence, guide, or manipulate others?**

The rich man is so concerned about his family going to hell After he dies and enters Hell.

Should have been concerned before death when it is too Later.

Offenses in leadership are able to cause eternal ramifications.

Do you make others better while becoming better according to the Word of God?

Do you guide others with the wisdom of the world or the wisdom of The Lord Jesus Christ?

Are you a stumbling block in your own life and the life of others?

Do you realize how much you influence yourself and others?

Following after the Lord Jesus will ultimately produce leadership that influences other for Heaven.

Following this world's wisdom will ultimately produce followers who are deceived by sin, corruption, and wickedness.
